

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Parag Rishipathak

Professor & Director, Symbiosis Centre for Health Skills (SCHS)

Education:

PhD: Symbiosis International (Deemed University), Pune India (2013)

MD (Hom.): University of Pune, Pune, India (2003-2006)

BHMS: University of Pune, Pune, India (1987-1992)

Work Experience: 29 years

Research Publications:

I have till date, more than 40 research publications in Scopus and Web of Science Indexed Journals, on Simulation training, Emergency Medical Professionals, Skill Base Education, Healthcare Management, Basic and Advanced Cardiac Life Support and International Trauma Life Support.

Projects:

- Multiple Projects have been implemented nationwide across India in numerous states, which include:
 - National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) for First Aid & Trauma Emergencies.
 - Training of Emergency Medical Professionals in Maharashtra, India under Maharashtra Emergency Medical Services (MEMS) Project to provide free emergency medical service to entire population of Maharashtra State.
 - Training of Emergency Medical Professionals in the state of Delhi, Andhra Pradesh and Jammu & Kashmir under EMS Project of Government of India.
 - Basic Life Support training for Police Personnel is in the state of Madhya Pradesh, India.

Conferences:

I have attended various International and National Conferences related to Emergency Medicine, Skill Education and Simulation.

Awards:

- American Heart Association (AHA), USA - Global recognition Award “Silver” consecutively for the two years 2014 & 2015.
- American Heart Association (AHA), USA - Global recognition Award “Gold” consecutively for the three years in succession 2016, 2017 & 2018.
- Member of Healthcare Sector Skill Council (HSSC), Government of India.